Give a Piece of the Island

Some gifts offer so much more; a place, a story or a favourite memory. This holiday season, give something curated, created, cooked or imagined in Prince Edward Island. Every gift in this guide is made here, by Islanders who add a little Island into everything they offer.

You're a Kindred Spirit!

Thank You

Kimberly Roach

OH HEY PEI

Island life is at the heart of Kim's creative work. She transforms PEI's coastlines, changing seasons and close-knit communities into hand-drawn artwork, lettering and prints.

Fun fact: Kimmy grew up in the fishing village of North Rustico, spending some summer days biking to Green Gables Heritage Place. Years later, that childhood magic inspired official merchandise for Netflix's Anne with an E!

Stories from the Island

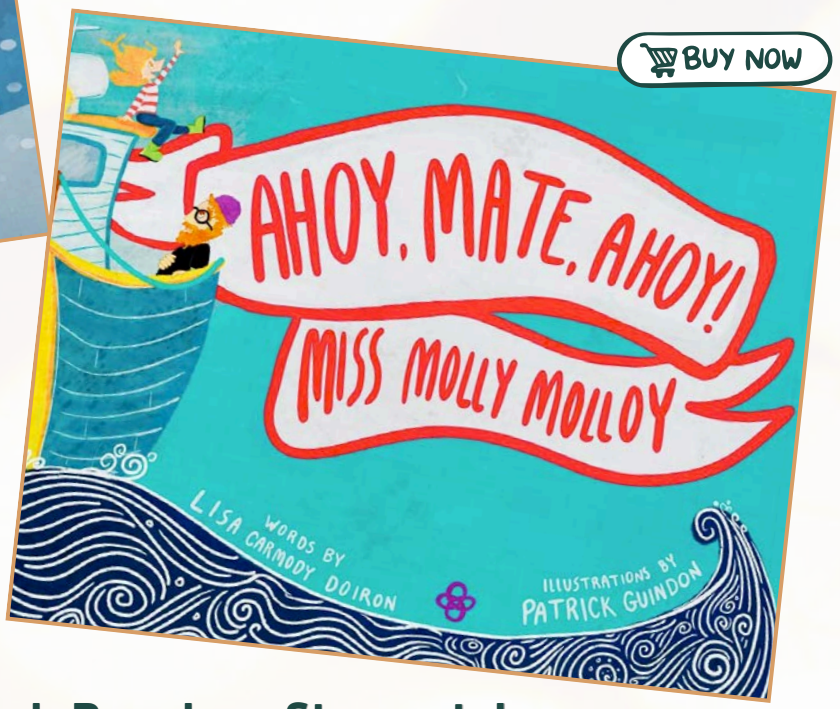

Amid the rolling fields, red sands, and sea-kissed air of Prince Edward Island, stories have always taken root. This is the very land that sparked the imagination of L.M. Montgomery and so many other local writers since her time.
